National Home Demonstration Week

April 29--May 6

THEME: "TO-DAY'S HOMES BUILD TO-MORROW'S WORLD"

The Appomattox County Home Demonstration Clubs, this year, celebrate their

TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY

of Organized HOME DEMONSTRATION WORK in the County

During National Home Demonstration Week the 355 Home Demonstration Club Members Honor

Mrs. Ella Smith Anderson

Who on July 1, 1936, was appointed their first Home Demonstration Agent. She has encouraged us to "Study the Best Way to do everydays' work, that we may find joy in Common Tasks Well Done." Under her capable leadership and devotion to the homemakers in Appomattox County we have not only progressed in all phases of Homemaking, but she has helped to develop desirable standards for Community Life and Citizenship, and has encouraged us to become leaders in our Communities, County and State.

Previous Home Demonstration Agents were Misses Juanita Morrison (1914-1916), Mary Shay (1916), and Gretchen Bell (1916-1918).

Along with our Demonstration Agent, we also honor all Leaders who have given generously of their time and interests in the promotion of county home demonstration club programs.

However, on our TWENTIETH ANNIVERSARY, we are especially indebted to and proud of those devoted club members who have served as County Chairmen. They not only helped plan the Programs, but helped to carry out all programs and goals during their terms of Office. They are:

Mrs. H. T. Terry	1936-1938	Mrs. H. A. Gurney	1948-1950
Mrs. J. T. Hix	1939-1941	Mrs. F. F. Carr	1950-1952
Mrs. O. R. Turnes	1942-1943	Mrs. T. M. Cunningham	1952-1953
Miss Kate Davidson	1944-1947	Mrs. R. K. Martin	1954-1956

Goals and Objectives

OF OBSERVANCE THIS YEAR ARE:

1. To acquaint the general public and especially young families with Extension Service's Educational Programs for homemakers.
2. To strengthen local planning and local participation in Extension Programs.
3. To acquaint homemakers with problems of agriculture and with research which relates to the home and family, and the importance of putting that research into practice.
4. To interpret to the people the scope of home economics and its contribution to family and community life.
5. To assist families in understanding the broad problems of agriculture and their relation to local, state, national and world affairs.
6. To give recognition to volunteer leaders whose services have contributed greatly to the development of better homes and community life.

...LUS can excuse its member-...ip list at any time. It can ...not to accept any more new ...ers for six years, or sixty. ...a church decides to do the ...it is not a church any more, ...a club. A church that is for ...erests not growing may be ...a church of Christ; but a ...h that does not want to grow ...ready. No ...h that Christ ...progressive, ...ed, ...f the world ...rch that has ...about it, a ...h whose be-...is limited by ...en parking ...church with ...n outreach, ...ready on a true church. It ...the real thing.

Dr. Foreman

...early Christian church was ...the real thing. It was a ...and therefore a growing. ...s. But it could have had, ...wanted, all the mouldy ex-...which lazy churches offer ...ry to explain why they don't ...ent. For example, the early ...ians could have said, "We ...reach out; we haven't any ...." But they managed to get ...d, or at any rate some of ...d. They could have com-...ed, "We have a shortage of ...ers." Well, they did, but ...had no shortage of laymen. ...the time the distinguished ...les got down to Samaria they ...an enthusiastic layman ...had been there already and ...work started. The church ...have said, "We can't afford ...d missionaries all the way to ...." They couldn't, to be sure. ...what they could do was to ...e Christian of an African in ...own country, trusting that ...uld take the gospel back to ...own people. (And he did, the ...tion tells us.) A track man ...not complain about seeing ...e in front of him; he jumps ...them. A good golfer does ...go home mad" because he ...to play with a handicap ...st him. He takes it as a com-...nt and a challenge. So the ...church took their hurdles ...handicaps as challenges.

...ss and Dietzy

...n you see a present-day ...ch with no outreach, one of ...reasons may be that the ...e leave all the outreaching ...e minister. He is supposed ...interested in missions, sure, ...his business. But the people ...e have a hard enough ...raising money with our ba-...pay for the preacher's salary, ...can't expect us to think ...missions! In fact, one has ...churches where the only ..."active member" was the ...cher. Now the early Chris-...talked no such nonsense. ...did not have the hard-and-...division into "laity" and ...y" that churches today have, ...if they use other words like ...ster" and "preacher," or ...holder" and "pulpit orator." ...Apostles, it is true, were men ...part. But the outreach of the ...church was mostly done by ...e who were not Apostles. ...so far as we hear in the book ...ts, the Apostles did not dress ...cently from any one else. ...did not claim exemption ...taxation, they did not claim ...ced rates at stores or when ...eling. They were not given ...the Reverend or Doctor,—...body called them just Paul ...ter or whatever, without so ...h as a "Mr." in front of their ...e. They worked at outreach, ...bet the point is, they were not ...ed on as professional out-...ers while the "laymen" were ...-slackers!

...ches and Lonely Man

...e early church reached out ...two ways. They went where ...crowds were, and also they ...to far lonely places. We ...about crowds in Jerusalem ...Samaria and elsewhere. We ...ve the story of Philip ...down to a desert road ...e his only congregation was ...lonely puzzled foreigner. The ...church today, the outreach-...church, the New Testament ...of church, also will be reach-...out to the multitudes, and to ...lonely man. It will be sending ...ssaries into great cities, in ...land and overseas, working ...g overcrowded tenements ...swarming streets. It will be ...ding out to cowhands on the ...anges, to lighthouse keep-...families along the seacoast, ...ide villages on the edge of ...Arctic and under the dripping ...al rainforests.

Rocks

Rocks, April 23.- Farmers are busy getting their lands ready to plant corn.

Mrs. Maude Ranson spent Tuesday with Mrs. Lizzie Williams, of Pamplin.

Mrs. Lewis Mann was the supper guest Monday of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Kern Mays.

HEN RIDES TRAIN

Portland, Ore.- A hen was found perched over the baggage car wheels of a Union Pacific passenger train when it arrived here recently from the East. Trannen believe it must have jumped aboard at the last daylight stop in Idaho, some 400 miles away. It was all right, except for its tailfeathers, which were apparently lost to flying cinders and rocks.

Clover Hill

Clover Hill, April 24.- Misses Nancy Oxford and Betty Mitchell spent the week-end in Lynchburg as guests of Virginia Baptist Hospital. They are considering entering training in September.

Mrs. William Copenhaver, of Richmond, spent Saturday night here with her mother, Mrs. W. P. Gills. Mr. Hugh Gills, of Washington, D. C., was also a visitor in the same home Sunday.
